Yeah Go Die

Kingswood

She passed a letter over and lit a cigarette
With the hope that blood shot words would cause duets
Well I can't help you dear it was so long ago
Just let love take you over and where it wants to goGo!I heard the rattle as she lit her second match
I left it all before the chains could re-attach
Don't try seduce me with your tears, I don't wanna know
I let love take me over and where it wants to goGo!(Instrumental)I found a ruby as I rode off in the sun
And in the red I saw the blood I'd lost and won
Have you heard dear? I'm alive, I want you to know
Just let love take you over and where it wants to goGo!
