Deny the Cross

Overkill

I'll steal your life and cut out your heart
Rip the core of your world apart
Then I'll take your sight leave ya blind
Laughing hard as you lose your mindSmash in your skull
Kick out your brains
Dance all over
What remainsLife, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the cross
Life, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the cross
Deny the crossI'm an angel, I'm virgin white
This only happens every night
Restitution for my sin
Imprisoned virtue, time beginsKiller instincts
Escape my find
Path of destruction
Left behindLife, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the cross
Life, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the crossLife, it walks away
It walks today, it fades away
Death, is here to stay
Is here today to deny the crossDraw and quarter, slice the meat
Now there's something, more to eat
Nothing left there is, just a frame
This poor soul has no nameBack to dirt
Six feet deep
I take a breath
Long and deepLife, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the cross
Life, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the crossLife, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger

In sin, you deny the cross
Life, the living danger
Death, the welcome stranger
In sin, you deny the cross
Deny the cross
