Tear It Up Again

Takida

She took my hand,
Creating imaginary times
I tried to concentrate I tried to be alive
You took my life and you shared it with a lie
I really fell into your world, memory cries

How will it ever work out fine,
How will it ever work out fine,
You tell me that you rather be
How will it ever work out

Take your life now
Take mine, heaven's in denial,
You former kind one,
Now you're evil in sight,

Tear it up
Tear it up

How will it ever work out fine,
How will it ever work out fine,
You tell me that you rather be
How will it ever work out
With someone else, that I'm consumed

You caught me by surprise and stole my only pride
Get on boy I'll take you for a ride
You caught me by surprise

How will it ever work out fine,
How will it ever work out fine,
you tell me that you rather be
How will it ever work out
With someone else, that I'm consumed

You caught me by surprise and stole my only pride
Get on boy
You caught me by surprise and stole my only pride
Get on boy I'll take you for a ride

Tear it up
You caught me by surprise
Tear it up
Get on boy
Tear it up
Get on boy

Tear it up
Tear it up
Tear it up
Tear it up
