Remember Me (Story Behind the Song)

Downhere

The brightest stars of history
The triumphs, failures, infamy
Just blend into tapestryThe ebbing waves of memories beach
Will mark the sand where waters reach
Impressions are all they leaveWords forgotten, never to return
But these precious few are flames that always burnWhoa Remember Me
Whoa Remember Me
Everytime you drink
Everytime you eat
Remember Me
Remember MeSo we drink the wine
And break the bread
Our senses will remind our heads
From now until Kingdom ComeProclaiming what is carved in stone
A death that only One could own
So many would come to knowA life begotten, which cannot be earned
The promise that will not be overturnedWhoa Remember Me
Whoa Remember Me
Everytime you drink
Everytime you eat
Remember Me
Remeber MeThe blood that spilled
The body broke
Will not depart my frontal lobe
The Great Rebirth of 33
It was, It is, Will always be(Remember Me, Oh, oh, Remember Me
Oh, oh, Remember Me, Whooo, Remember Me)Whoa Remember Me
Whoa Remember Me
Everytime you drink
And everytime you eat
With every word you speak
And every breath you breathe
Remember Me
Remember Me
Remember Me
Remember MeTake the bread
Take the wine
Look beyond this mortal time

And wait for the Kingdom
