

I.O.L.

Collapsis

Say hello to my friends
They receive what I send
If I only knew their faces
In a room without walls
When I stumble, I don't fall
All my questions find their answers Misery in your honesty
Honesty is my misery Leave me alone, I'm doing fine
Don't try to call when I'm on-line
Get off the phone, you're wasting my time
Don't try to call when I'm on-line Break my heart and I won't care
Because I can go anywhere
Plug me into your homepage Misery in your honesty
Honesty is my misery Leave me alone, I'm doing fine
Don't try to call when I'm on-line
Get off the phone, you're wasting my time
Don't try to call when I'm on-line Will you sign on tonight?
Your pictures are on my hard drive
Talk to me, talk to me Leave me alone, I'm doing fine
Don't try to call when I'm on-line
Get off the phone, you're wasting my time
Don't try to call when I'm on-line Leave me alone, I'm doing fine
Don't try to call when I'm on-line
Get off the phone, you're wasting my time
Don't try to call when I'm on-line
