

Autumnal Reaper (Live in Worth '94)

Marduk

The coldest winds embrace the lands
Awakend from its ancient slumber
By a circle of sleepless eyesAutumn reaper, dress me in ice
Let my blood freeze in your eyesTowards a dark sky, monolith points
Created by unknown hands in a darker age
The threes bow for this wind, the cursed
That will live on foreverThe winds of autumn cold and loud
Dressed in ice it dies, the life
Standing as frozen shadows
Under flickering stars
Autumn reaper dress me in ice
Let my blood freeze in your eyes
