

Happy Valentine's Day

Tokyo Police Club

When he swerved i was sitting on the asphalt, saw my face and he came to a screeching halt, they all say that it's the luck of the draw, if that's the case then i drew nothing at all. Why would i treat her like i treated you?
I'm not a lunatic, you know, what i see in her, i saw in you, things are good but they're moving slow. She's on my nerves but she's on my bed too, some things can change but some just have to go through, oh- i wanna spend all my summer days with you, That's a shame cos' my summer days are through. Why would i treat her like i treated you?
I'm not a lunatic you know,
what i see in her i saw in you, things are good but they're moving slow. Treated her like I treated you, see in her I saw in you! We've made things difficult far too fast so happy valentine's, we've made things difficult in the past, so happy valentine's-day.
