Aimless Arrow

Converge

To live the life you want
You've abandoned those in need
A necessary casualty
Or so you believe
Your wake will always travel
And well up in the eyes
Of those that you sacrificed
In order to surviveI'm that aimless arrow
Lost from my very start
Violence without purpose
Born of broken hearts
No one will ever guide me
As I sail through the air
Now I just bring sadness
In those who choose to careI know the tears they're weeping
And the damage they will take
It's the curse of restlessness
And the weight of your mistakes
They are those that love you
And those that need you more
Then the sense gravity
Banging down your doorI'm that aimless arrow
Lost from my very start
Violence without purpose
Born of broken hearts
No one will ever guide me
As I sail through the air
Now I just bring sadness
In those who choose to careAimless arrow
Lost from the start
Aimless arrow
Lost from the start
Aimless arrow
Aimless arrow
Aimless arrow
Lost from the start
Aimless arrow
Lost from the start
Aimless arrow

Lost from the start
Lost from the start
