Subconscious

Devastation

existing in my mind thoughts i can't control altered state begins confusion takes its toll the mental struggle of mind and body are one oblivious to the moment when peace of mind sets inis it real is it a dream can't open my eyes i cannot scream a parasite dwelling inside my head devouring my mind life hanging from a thread is there another inside of me, deep within my mind without a trace of life blood i see but i am blind this can't be reality fighting for my sanity though i try i can't break free from this thing controlling me subconscious - the war inside my head subconscious - twisting into form subconscious - prisoner of pain subconscious - the war rages ever on
