Humanoid

Humboldt Squid

No one can read your mind
You're just another humanoid
Alone with your thoughts
In a though depraved void

Well you can follow me, Follow me
Down to my place by the sea
By the sea, by the sea
Where I know you will fall in love with me

And I hope you never ever go away
And I hope you always say the same
But I know that people always go away
I hope that you will never change

No one can read your mind
You are just another humanoid
Alone with your thoughts

And I hope you never ever go away
And I hope you always stay the same
But I know that people always go away
I hope that you will always stay the same

And I hope you never ever go away
ANd I hope you always stay the same
But I know people always go away
I hope you never ever change
