

Three Months

Local Natives

You always hated every gorgeous coffee cup
You could never see that,
That to him they meant the world I am letting you know
I am ready to feel you
I am letting you know
I am ready to feel you I keep on calling
Just to get the machine
I've got to go on now;
Having thought this wasn't your last year I am letting you know
I am ready to feel you
I am letting you know
I am ready to feel you
