

We're Trying

Sanctus Real

There's a familiar progression to similar lives that we all lead

We're trying hard to become someone we can't be

You won't find grace without honesty 'Cause everyone wants reality, so here it is

I believe that nobody is good, nobody is good We are liars and thieves, we're destroying the peace

But we're trying, we're trying, we're trying It's the same regression to the lives that we all lead

Everyone makes mistakes, but we find grace

We believe that there's redemption, that there's redemption If you want reality, then here it is

I believe that nobody is good, nobody is good We are liars and thieves, we're destroying the peace

But we're trying, we're trying, we're trying There is nothing in our blood that makes the heart beat strong enough

Apart from grace, apart from love

I believe in grace I believe with love that we can do good, we can do good

We can do good, we can do good We are liars and thieves, we're destroying the peace

But we're trying, we're trying

We are liars and thieves, we're destroying the peace

But we're trying, we're trying, we're trying
