

Dream

Angie Stone

I wake up to his smile and it brings joy he naked cooking breakfast like baby boy and do he make a mean mimosa then he lay my body down on the sofa and I, I, I, I he handling his busines I, I, I, dark skinned like Edris, ooh, I could scream let me dream
sun coming through the blinds, i'mma hit the snooze button roll back over i ain't waking up for nothing nooo (dream dream dream)
whether i'm sleeping or wide or wake oh honey i'll be dreaming
(dream dream dream)
so please don't wake me up just let me dream, (dream) oh if you love me then don't interrupt me, no you just let me dream (dream dream dream)
let me (dream dream) rose pedal dream and all of that lavender oil my bubble bath (wash me) wash me
(dry me) dry me lotion me up and red wine me book a flight, with carry-on we don't need no bags take me shopping when we land we can ship 'em back ooh, i can scream, let me dream sun coming through the blinds, i'mma hit the snooze button roll back over i'm waking up for nothing nooo (dream dream dream)
whether i'm sleeping or wide awake oh honey i'll be dreaming (dream dream dream)
so please don't wake me up, just let me dream (dream) oh if you love me then don't interrupt me, nah you just me let me dream (dream dream dream)
let me (dream dream)

Girl, he was standing up in the kitchen with nothing on cooking me eggs and grits, I was just like oh my God, who can eat with somebody looking like that, and make sure all the windows is closed because ooh I don't want nobody to be sharing that, now you know i'm a christian and i gotta keep it, gotta keep that in mind you know, after all its, its just a dream - but thats a good dream sun coming through the blinds i'mma hit the snooze button rolled back over i'm not waking up for nothing noo (dream dream dream)

whether i'm sleeping or wide awake, oh honey i'm be dreaming (dream dream dream)
so please don't wake up, just let me dream (dream) ooh if you love me then don't interrupt me (dream) nah let me dream (dream dream dream)
let me
(dream)
