

Don't Weep for Me

Blue Highway

We were both sixteen when I first saw her
I knew right then she had my heart
The day we stood before the preacher
We vowed that we would never part
Now I'm haunted by that cold December
When my surprise turned to rage
Everything turned red and the last thing I remember
Was seeing her in his embrace So don't weep for me, I deserve no sorrow
For you know where i am found
They'll come for me, and by tomorrow
I'll lie beside her in the ground
I never dreamed I'd find myself a cryin'
Without her love I'm all alone
Inside these walls, in this cell a dyin'
Six by ten of cold steel and stone So don't weep for me, I deserve no sorrow
For you know where i am found
They'll come for me, and by tomorrow
I'll lie beside her in the ground Now when I stood before the judge's hammer
I plead guilty and I hung my head
The man in her arms wore the name of Tanner
Her brother that she had never met
So don't weep for me, I deserve no sorrow
For you know where i am found
They'll come for me, and by tomorrow
I'll lie beside her in the ground
They'll come for me, and by tomorrow
I'll lie beside her in the ground

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>