Devilish Man

SomeKindaWonderful

Their once was a man who rambled on a cell he never thought a lie he couldn't tell his shell Al Capone his yolk aleppo
but the soul that he stole was too hot for hell he plays for fools i'm sure about it tell you truth well i sure doubt it every word was calculated bones some hearts dislocated every little smile he's fakin' oh what a cheathe's a devilish man he's a devilish man better run while you can cuz' baby he got a plan.
he'd feed on his own
then gnaw at the bones filling his dark empty soul with the life of metheir once was a man who never had a friend he sized them up as they came his raw temp was short hate you like a sport like the Grinch he's a mean one and he'd never changehe's rare for greed i'm sure about it hands in you pockets baby and he's blunt about it it happened to me and i still can't get free it takes one to know one cuz' that man is mehe's a devilish man
then gnaw on the bone
with the life of mehe's a devilish man

and then gnaw on the bone
with the life of me
with the light from me
