

Liquid Courage

Medina

I was not myself today but I wanna stay this way
I am stepping from the shade
I am screaming till the sun turns gray I am more than what you see now I'm reaching for the real me finally it's time to make a change, make a change, make a change I raise my glass to a little bit of that liquid courage cheers to you cheers to me so here's a toast to a little more than liquid courage in five minutes you will see who I am, who I really am
