

Try It

Funky Brotherhood

Travel by the silver line
to a place that has no time.
Why don't you try it now?

Working hard to see the light,
let your mind take up in flight.
Why don't you try it now?

It's beautiful, seeing all the colors of the rainbow, beautiful, covering the people that we know.

See the color of health flowing from your older self.
Why don't you try it now?

Living good, stopped playing games,
traveling the astral planes.
Why don't you try it now?
