The Mentor

Catman Cohen

In dreams I appear and take her
Down a path she dares not wander
In a town beset by plunder
I shake her blood and boneIn dreams she asks my guidance
How to live in holy silence
Beyond the anger of her father
Enrich her mind and soulHold me inside all the night
Your leaders your baby
Hold me inside all the night
Your teacher loves you crazyIn dreams she feels me beside her
As I stoke her female fire
In a world that feels so lonely
I fill her need and hopeIn dreams I appear and take her
On wings of heavens power
Beyond tears that stain her pillow
She takes my love and poem.Hold me inside all the night
Your leaders your baby
Hold me inside all the night
Your teacher loves you crazyHold me
