I'm Lovin' It

Justin Timberlake

I'm lovin' it
I'm lovin' it
Don't you love it too?
Yo, hi, I'm not here to waste your time
And no this ain't a pick up line
I just think that you're a dime
Well, just sit there girl
Well, I know that heart that's in your chest
It carries pain and so must stress
But you got to let it go
Go, go, girl
Just close your eyes I'll grab your waist
Next think you know you have your pace
Girl you got to let it go
Go, go, girl
I know you wanna get down
You do deserve to get down
Been working hard all week
Just trying to make your money
Girl, go on and shake your booty
I'm lovin' it, I'm lovin' it, I'm lovin' it
I'm lovin' it
By the way what's your sign
I bet it is compatible with mine
Probably long lasting years down the line
I'm telling you girl, you're a dime
Well, just sit there girl

I know that heart that's in your chest
It carries pain and so must stress
But you got to let it go
Go, go, girl
Just close your eyes, I'll grab your waist
Next think you know you have your pace
Girl, you got to let it go
Go, go, girl
Remember
The first time we met

Butterflies in my stomach
Can't even speak
You, something about you
It's so clear
I was lovin' it
How, how you do all the things you do?
Like being you, you're so professional
Not to mention you're the baddest of your group
Girl, go on and shake your booty
I'm lovin' it, I'm lovin' it, I'm lovin' it
I'm lovin' it
I'm lovin' it
Don't you love it too?
