

Crack A Head

Project Pat

We ain't out here claimin' killa but we will crack a head
(Crack a  head, crack a  head)
And one of y'all suckas wanna get some of these (Crack a  head, we'll crack a  head)We ain't out here claimin' killa but we will crack a head
(Crack a  head, crack a  head)
And one of y'all suckas wanna get some of these (Crack a  head, we'll crack a  head)I'm throwing project hood hay makers in the club on the block
Swangin' 'til you fall then I stomp you with my Reebok's Haters used to laugh when I was poor well chuckle this Nothing but very chaps lips tasting knuckle fistBuckle this up in your mind when you was looking mean
Hit him in his face, eyes roll like a slot machine
All up in the club  talkin' caught one in the throat Fist to his windpipe that was all that she wroteHate to see it happen but believe me that it will Violators doggin' blood is gonna spill
You gonna get some act right reachin' for my hen'
Bottle slap you in your dome it will send you right into tomorrowWe ain't out here claimin' killa but we will
crack a head
(Crack a  head, crack a  head)
And one of y'all suckas wanna get some of these (Crack a  head, we'll crack a  head)We ain't out here claimin' killa but we will crack a head
(Crack a  head, crack a  head)
And one of y'all suckas wanna get some of these (Crack a  head, we'll crack a  head)You young punks need to walk off in silence
Bump into me and experience some of this violence
I'm raising chairs up and send your head up into the cushion
Some  diss North Memphis so we had to rush himTalk all that noise but you boys are some trillillas
You shall get beat down clown by gorillas
Street raised with some knuckle punch skillillas Don't be amazed saying "Whatcha gonna do to us?"Cause we ain't takin' threats, layin' bets on who we whoopin'
If he got big with one all of us gonna whoop him
Ya gal chose so we man up like game time
Over a broad you's about to get flat linedWe ain't out here claimin' killa but we will crack a head
(Crack a  head, crack a  head)
And one of y'all suckas wanna get some of these (Crack a  head, we'll crack a  head)We ain't out here claimin' killa but we will crack a head
(Crack a  head, crack a  head)
And one of y'all suckas wanna get some of these

(Crack a  head, we'll crack a  head)
