

Deathminded

Armagedda

[Lyrics by Graav]In this cold night I feel my soul life again when i think of the world that i left beyond this dark sideThe true evil against humans Is still alive inside me
All i can feel is emptiness From the dark angel's powerWhen the time has come i will return with death on my mind
And with my immortality
You will be prepared to dieI can hear voices voices from the dark past My fantasies turn real then the dead lives againI saw the truth when i walked the eternal journey the future of the world will burn in my flames
