Electric

Miki Ratsula

Chords & Lyrics to â€œElectricâ€• by Miki Ratsula switch between E and A the entire song. Capo on the 6th Your skin pressed against mine covered in sheets
our bodies intertwined
The light creeps in through a cracked window It softens your face the most precious one that I know and when I canâ€™t see your face Iâ€™ll reach out my hand to close the space, between us causeâ€™ love donâ€™t know what distance is and love can melt the distances and even when I miss your kiss, I know that I will see you soon and no matter how far apart, I still can feel your beating heart itâ€™s only been you from the start, and baby girl I love you so Your hands tangled with mine your lingering kiss its sweet flavor left behind and baby your smile so gentle and pure
You are mine and forever I am yours
and when I canâ€™t see your face
itâ€™s only been you from the start, and baby girl I love you so your love is electric, magnetic, it rattles my bones itâ€™s so addicting, inviting, itâ€™s calling me home your love is honest, and modest, itâ€™s my favorite song and while we whisper we can scream it at the top of our lungsÂ
