

Lone (feat. JOY.)

What So Not

Was I ever was something on your mind?

Do you miss me not being by your side?

By your side?

Well, I thought that I was someone to you

Well, I just wanted to be a home to you

By your side You held another in your arms

You dropped me like a stone

and now you're pulling me back in

When it's quiet under

Got you under my skin

I let you leak into my veins

Now I can't take it

I want you all left lone How can I feel so alone?

How can I feel so alone?

How can I feel so alone?

How can I feel so alone? Well, I thought that I was someone to you

Well, I just wanted to be a home to you

You held another in your arms

You dropped me like a stone

and now you're pulling me back in

When it's quiet under

Got you under my skin

I let you leak into my veins

Now I can't take it

I want you all left lone

'Cause I'm losing either way

'Cause I'm losing either way

Take this slow

'Cause it's moving too fast

As the warmth in your heart

There's a cold in your grasp

How can I choose when I'm losing either way?

How can I choose when I'm losing

How can I choose when I'm losing

How can I choose when I'm losing

How can I choose when I'm losing

How can I choose when I'm losing either way?

How can I choose when I'm losing either way?

How can I choose when I'm losing either way?

How is it a choice when I'm begging you to stay?
