October In The Graveyard

Grieves

(Chorus)
Take that devil out your head, lay your skeletons to rest
Bed of roses where you lay it down definitely
Those words cross your headstone
I'll pray for the moment you awake
Mighty is the bitter blade, crimson be the...? you break
Another dusty record plays, dancing by yourself in the blue shade
And I've done dug a lot of graves to uncover your bones and release you from the dark
'Cause the moment that you seen me coming you will both feet running to the reapers arms
(Chorus)
Take that devil out your head, lay your skeletons to rest

Bed of roses where you lay it down definitely
Those words cross your headstone
I'll pray for the moment you awake
That rusted metal gate will fall, ploughing into that field where you silently lay
Lovely little paperdoll skit of what that ghost in you might say
And I've done dug alot of graves to uncover your bones and release you from the dark
'Cause the moment that I seen you running for that last train coming it done broke my heart
(Chorus)
Take that devil out your head, lay your skeletons to rest
Bed of roses where you lay it down definitely
Those words cross your headstone
I'll pray for the moment you awake
