

My Little Labrador

Brendan Biondi

Your my little Labrador you're the one that I adore you're my special little Labrador my Labrador always right there by my side even when I need to cry you're much special little Labrador my Labrador you make me smile when I'm down appreciate the good I found you teach me so much though you cannot speak a word you're my little Labrador you're my little Labrador you're a dog but so much more you're my special little Labrador my Labrador music you make me smile when I'm down you're as silly as a clown you are the cutest cuddly canine companion you are home and now it's time for you to close your eyes and Dream away the night you and I have tomorrow more adventures are just right outside that door my Labrador you're my little Labrador you're the one that I adore you're my special little Labrador my Labrador
