

Can't Be Saved (OST Guitar Hero III)

Senses Fail

Follow your bliss, it beats on my chest
I know I got it tattooed for a reason
Why can't I just hold it true?'Cause I'm still crashing all the funerals
Of these people that I never knew, yeah I'm stuck in a coma
Stuck in a never ending sleep
Some day I will wake up
And realize I made up everything I shut the door and turn all the lights out
And listen to all the song's that the night shouts
They go something like this So go fill up a glass with tonic rocks
And jaded drink yourself to happiness I'm stuck in a coma
Stuck in a never ending sleep
Some day I will wake up
And realize I made up everything We cannot hang ourselves around gold chandeliers
A dream brought back to home, all the pain and fears
We send our sunken ships to a shallow grave
Washed upon the rocks, I won't be saved, I won't be saved I'm stuck in a coma
Stuck in a never ending sleep
And some day I will wake up
And realize I gave up everything (I won't be saved)
So bury your bliss, it beats on my chest
(I won't be saved)
I know I got it tattooed for a reason (I won't be saved)
I shut the door and turn all the lights out
(I won't be saved)
And listen to all the song's that the night shouts
