White Lies

Lovehatehero

Tell you that the world is never gonna end
Dont open your eyes..to then i can

So we all thrive to do the best we can
Clouding their eyes with ivory lies
Build a safe haven from their whats? and whys?
We shelter their mind with ivory lies
At some point, they figure out

O with so much going on
Lying is my disguise
So innocent and sweet, thats what i adore
So much going on
I dont think your ready for
Oooo lying is my disguise
What you dont know cant hurt you

You cant regret the choices you've made
Or choices you'll make
Life is in you today, when you make your tomorrow
So why? why the White Lies

O with so much going on
Lying is my diguise
So innocent and sweet, thats what i adore
So much going on
I dont think your ready for
Oooo lying is my disguise
What you dont know cant hurt you

You cry White Lies

O with so much going on
Lying is my disguise
So innocent and sweet, thats what i adore
So much going on
I dont think your ready for
Oooo lying is my diguise
What you dont know cant hurt you

So we all thrive to do the best we can
Clouding thier eyes with ivory lies
Build a safe haven from their whats? and whys?
We shelter their minds with ivory lies
At some point, they figure out
