Anyone

Moving Units

Somehow we survive, we don't even try,
We don't like who we are, but we pretend anyway
Because we're human and such, we long for someone to touch
A little death to escape, a shallow grave with a face

Because we're ANYONE, is there anybody out there is there anybody, ANYONE is there anybody out there, ANYONE is there anybody, oh oh oh oh, calling anybody repeat x5

Somehow we collide, we don't even know why We can't quite comprehend, what makes us crawl in our skin
Because we're empty inside, we get no thrilled from this life Consumed by pillars of fire, convicted by our desire To just find ANYONE is there anybody out there is there anybody, ANYONE
is there anybody out there (ANYONE) is there anybody (ANYONE) till fade
