

The Lonely Jew on Christmas

Frightwig

It's hard to be a Jew on Christmas
My friends won't let me join in any games
And I can't sing Christmas songs or decorate a Christmas tree
Or leave water out for Rudolph 'cause there's something wrong with me
My people don't believe in Jesus Christ's divinity

I'm a Jew
A lonely Jew
On Christmas

Hanukkah is nice, but why is it
That Santa passes over my house every year?
And instead of eating ham, I have to eat kosher latkes
Instead of Silent Night, I'm singing 'Hu, hachtol gavishâ€™™
And what the fuck is up with lighting all these fucking candles? Tell me, please

I'm a Jew
A lonely Jew
I can't be merry
'Cause I'm Hebrew
On Christmas

Hey, little boy, I couldn't help but hear
You're feeling left out of Christmas cheer
But I've come to say that you shouldn't be sad
This is the one month that you should be glad

'Cause it's nice to be a Jew on Christmas
You don't have to deal with the season at all
You don't have to be on your best behavior or give to charity
You don't have to go to grandma's house with your alcoholic family
And I don't have to sit on some fake Santa's lap and have him breathe his stinky breath on me

That's right, you're a Jew
A stylin' Jew
It's a good time
To be Hebrew
On Christmas

On Christmas
