

Don't Change

Turbo Fruits

Neo-lady, what we called you
My lips go numb, I don't know what to say to you
It didn't used to be this way
I wish tomorrow could be yesterday. Don't change, don't change
Don't change, don't change
Now it feel a little longer, watching time pass by
You have always been the only, won't you catch my eye
I remember when you told me, you would never change
Now you're acting show, but I don't know
You and me we used to run this town
You and me had recently turned upside down
It didn't used to be this way
Now I'm standing here with wild thin lips to say Don't change, don't change
Don't change, don't change
Now it feel a little longer, watching time pass by
You have always been the only, won't you catch my eye
I remember when you told me, you would never change
Now you're acting show, but I don't know
Don't change, don't change
Don't change, don't change
Now it feel a little longer, watching time pass by
You have always been the only, won't you catch my eye
I remember when you told me, you would never change
Now you're acting show, but I don't know
