

Suddenly (feat. Cynthia Erivo)

Anderson & Petty

I still remember when I looked at your face
Such innocence and beauty
Your eyes met mine, I felt out of place
I knew right then you saw me
And as the days they flew by
You were the one by my side

You're here, and suddenly
I need to breathe you into me
You've caught my heart unexpectedly
I look at you and I'm falling suddenly

That fateful day, I heard the news,
Of when your world stopped turning
I pictured you, lonely and confused
No way to still the heartache
My light in your darkness I share
I hope that you hear my prayer

I'm here, and suddenly
You take a breath and run to me
Our lives have changed unexpectedly
I look at you and I'm falling, suddenly

I watched you in the cafe, with that song on the radio,
I kissed away the tears of a father's son,
When you told me you'd kept the message,
I'd left so long ago,
I sensed it then,
You were the one!

Now we're here, and suddenly,
The curtain falls, it's just you and me,
Alone in the dark you pull me close,
I hear your heart and suddenly,
suddenly I know,
You love me.
