You keep watching the rain come down
Pretty princess, broken crown
And your dreams have all burned out
But don't you know that they brought you here somehow
All you need to know is You're home, where secrets are told
See a new world unfolding
Where hearts are one, the pain's undone
And you're finally belonging here And you need to know, you need to know
You're home
You need to know, you need to know
You're home So take your coat off and stay awhile
What made you cry can make you smile again
You can hold your head up high
Don't you know that you, oh girl, you were born to fly?
When you realize You're home, secrets are told
See a new world unfolding
Where hearts are one, the pain's undone
And you're finally belonging here And you need to know, you need to know
You're home
You need to know, oh, you really need to know
You're home
Welcome home Every thing's gonna be alright
'Cause you're home
Feel the sun, your day has come
You're not alone You're home
Feel the sun, your day has come
You're not alone You're home
Feel the sun, your day has come
You're not alone You're home
You belong in, you belong in
You belong in your home Every thing's gonna be alright
'Cause you're home
You're home
