One Night Only

Saliva

Ow yeah
I always wanted to be President
I always wanted to be Superman
I ended up a fuckin' superstar
I'm better off than either one of them
I wanna take you to a higher place
Say all the things that you could never say
I'll even help you try to make a change
Before the whole world blows up in your face
In your face, yeah
Come inside for a moment
Come inside for a moment
I'm the voice inside of you
That says there's nothin' you can't do
If you could open up your eyes
And lay your heart out on the line
I'm the voice inside your head
That brings your mind back from the dead
I hope that I have served you right
Even if only for one night, yea yea yea yeah
C'mon, aaa
I'm not religious or fanatical
But I'm a motherfuckin' miracle
You knock me down and I get up again
So hit the lights out and let the show begin
Show begin, yeah
Come inside for a moment
Come inside for a moment
I'm the voice inside of you
That says there's nothin' you can't do
If you could open up your eyes
And lay your heart out on the line
I'm the voice inside your head
That brings your mind back from the dead
I hope that I have served you right
Even if only for one night, yea yea yea yeah
C'mon, aaa
Come inside for a moment
Come inside for a moment, yeah

I'm the voice inside of you
That says there's nothin' you can't do
If you could open up your eyes
And lay your heart out on the line
I'm the voice inside your head
That brings your mind back from the dead
I hope that I have served you right
Even if only for one night
I'm the voice inside of you
That says there's nothin' you can't do
If you could open up your eyes
And lay your heart out on the line
I'm the voice inside your head
That brings your mind back from the dead
I hope that I have served you right
Even if only for one night, yea yea yea yeah
C'mon, go go go
Go go go
