

You Decide

S

Seem so sad 'cause you're still the same
It's gotten old
It's gotten out of hand
I think about her sometimes
I think you think about her sometimes
We all think about them sometimes We all think about them sometimes 'Cause you decide it
You decide it all So when I leave, feel free to talk about me
It seems so desperate trying not to lie
It's a big excuse for those things you just won't ever have
'Cause you decide it
You decide it all
You decide it all
You decide it all
You decide it all
