Changing Faces

E.G. Daily

Here we go another day
Looking for another way
Tired of takin' the backseatCarry on from place to place
Hold our heads up, smile with grace
Time for tears, there's no escapeHold on, you can say anything
Take off your shoes and sit for a while
I'd like to know if you hear what I'm sayin' nowPlease stop changing faces
Oh, it's time go home
I'm so tired of this game we playedChanging faces
Take a look at me first
There's so much more to being me to sayTired of fightin' to be heard
I've been waiting, where's my turn?
Hold my heart out up to youSo many things we all have learned
Count the blessings with every turn
Can't forget my faith in youHow nice to be ordinary
Time out, can't pretend anymore
I'd like to know if you hear what I'm sayin' nowI'd like to be myself for a while
Just me...Stop changing faces
Oh, it's time go home
I'm so tired of this game we playedChanging faces
Take a look at me first
There's so much more to being me to sayChanging faces
Oh, it's time go home
I'm so tired of this game we playedChanging faces
Take a look at me first
There's so much more to being me to sayChanging faces
Oh oh.oh oh
How sadoh.Here we go another day
