I Could Fall

Evan And Jaron

Nobody could hurt me
Like I know she could hurt me
But there's nothing in this world that I want more
Nobody could take me to the places that she takes me
Places that I've never been before
With my eyes wide open knowing full well
I could fall from Heaven
(Fall from Heaven)
I could fall from Heaven
(Fall from Heaven)
I could fall, I could brake that's the chance that I take
I could fall
Look at me I'm flying
Just a breath away from dying
Holding on to her and letting go
As I walk across this wire above a lake of fire
And lean into the wind that starts to blow
With my eyes wide open knowing full well
I could fall from Heaven
(Fall from Heaven)
I could fall from Heaven
(Fall from Heaven)
I could fall, I could brake that's the chance that I take
I could fall
Do I hide my heart?
Do I lock my door?
Do I tear it out so it don't feel no more?
No, I risk it all knowing that
I could fall from Heaven
(Fall from Heaven)
I could fall from Heaven
(Fall from Heaven)
I could fall
I could fall
I could fall
I could fall
Fall, fall
