

Oblivion

Nina Nastasia

I'm drifting down
While you scream past my head
Fly away, fly away
I wonder what you said And i'm watching you
Bare your teeth in a growl
Throwing your way
Back and forth 'til now And i'm here in oblivion
I don't feel anything
Well, it's time to begin again
I won't remember anything at all Could it be something that i said
It's making you good, boys and hens in my bed
And i would feel sorry if i could
So fly away, fly away, if you think you should
