

Remember When (Side B)

The Black Keys

All right
It happened when I heard her name
The same ol' thoughts crept back again
Oh, they grew, yeah they grew Somewhere in my sorry state
The lightening struck that old iron gate
Oh, it's true, yeah it's true With snow in tow, the winter winds
Smacks you on your cheeks again
Oh, it stings, oh, it stings Remember how I held you near
And whispered in your precious ear
Sweet things, yeah sweet things, yeah It happened when I heard her name
Same ol' thoughts crept back again
Oh, they grew, yeah they grew, oh
