

Sick of All Your Secrets (feat. Josie)

Fred V & Grafix

[Produced by Fred V & Grafix][Verse 1: Josie]

I feel the turbulence, a shift in gravity
As you move gradually away from me
I see you hesitate with all the words you say
But do I feel like I'm just wasting my time?

You seem so indifferent
Maybe I'll find someone different
I'll try to keep my distance
From you[Chorus: Josie]

I am sick of all your secrets
I won't play these games
I am sick of all your secrets

Time to turn the page[Verse 2: Josie]

This could be home, if I pulled back time and removed your memory

And if I knew the flaws in your system
Are you still cold or preoccupied with an image of purity?
I guess I won't know, it's time to express my insecurity
You make me feel like I'm floating, then take it all away

You take it all away
Had something real, now I'm searching
Searching for emotion or sanity, oh[Chorus x2: Josie]
