Sometimes

Daniel Lanois

Sometimes, sometimes
Sometimes I feel like I'm playin' on the radio
Sometimes I feel like I'm on a travelin' road show
Sometimes I got the power of the will and
I know my song is gonna to be alrightSometimes I feel like I'm on a freight train
Forever rescued by the mystery rain
Sometimes I'm just out for a thrill, she always said
'Baby, you're gonna be alright'The sun gonna come shining down
Push it all away, make it alright
Sometimes in the heart of a long, cold night
It's all too far out of sight, out of sightHard to know everything's going to be alright
Everyone thinks you got everything you want
Hard to have and then have not
Hard to have and then have notSometimes I wanna take a pill and hide
Sometimes I wanna shut down and ride
And go where no man should go
Go where no man should go
Go where no man should go
Go where no man should go
Could it be, ever really be, alright
