

Little Voice Inside

Jaci Velasquez

Father do you hear me
Cause I know, I hear you
I waited for the answers
While sitting here in my room I danced to the rhythm
And moved by myself
No one could see through me
Or hear the words I felt Little voice inside keeps calling
Little voice inside it cries
Little voice inside keeps calling
Little voice, oh, won't you be my guide? I sometimes hear the echo
The pattern of my cry
I sometimes feel the pulling
From a sound that's deep inside Quiet are the whispers
And silent are my eyes
No one hears but me
That little voice inside you see
