Incurable

Andraculoid

I'm starting over
I can feel the change
No matter how much we try
We'll all end up the same
I'm tired of the struggle
I want it to go away
How can I go on?
If it's always going to be this way

All... The anger
That builds in me with every passing day
All... The hate that destroys me
Will never go away
(x2)

I'm losing my grip
Fearing my own reality
Not this time, this is it
This isn't how I want to be
I'm losing the struggle
It won't go away
I will not go on
If it's always going to be this way

All... The anger
That builds in me with every passing day
All... The hate that destroys me
Will never go away
(x2)
