Variations On A Theme (Plane Crash in c)

Rilo Kiley

if you're scared and it shows cause you're watching them grow and traveling blows when you're out of road and when you jump up the earth wants you backyour resentment grow till you're all alone but you're so smart how could they not know when you're standing there in good humored whiteand how do you do it? and make it seem effortless when its all the stupid things so overwhelming to me like paying my bills or showing up for work early or laughing at your jokeswhen you first said that anything goes or a problem is a task disguised in work clothes that's when i knew i had to move and why do you do it?
and make it seem delicate
when its all the stupid things so damn confusing to me like talking it through controlling my temper like letting it go saying please forgive me or laughing at your jokesi have no idea what's been going on lately and i just wish you'd come over and explain thingsand i have no idea what's been going on lately and i just wish you'd come over and explain thingsi have no idea what's been going on lately
and i just wish you'd come over and explain thingsi have no idea what's been going on lately and i just wish you'd come over and explain thingswhy do they do it?
show up anyway
when they know that damn well there is no room for promotions out here and maybe it's wise and maybe i'm just stupid for laughing at your jokes
