

Hurt On Hold

The Fuzztones

You said you loved me but you lied
That's alright 'cause so did I
Now you say you want me back
Your love is true and that's a fact
Well ever since you left me I've been meaning to cry baby I just don't seem to ever find the time
You sit home and read your book
My phone is ringing off the hook
I've got to put my hurt on hold
Now you want another chance
To resurrect our romance
Honey that can never be
'Cause you said you were through with me
Well I've got girls to the left and I've got girls to the right
Hope you don't think I'm being impolite
But I've got better things to do
Than spend my time getting over you
I've got to put my hurt on hold
Well now you're coming back again
You say you wanna be my friend
Well honey that can never be 'Cause you said you were through with me. yeah
I've got girls to the left and I've got girls to the right
Hope you don't think I'm being impolite
But I've got better things to do
Than spend my time getting over you
I've got to put my hurt on holdTalk Talk
