

We've Got a Crisis

Zea

Did you hear that the worldâ€™s gone bad
The temperatures are rising
All the ice on the poles will melt
Holland needs new diking

Yesterday Wallstreet collapsed
The banks got packed in cushions
In our language is a bank a couch
And thatâ€™s something we dance on

Weâ€™ve got a crisis, weâ€™ve got a crisis and we dance to the sound of sirens
Weâ€™ve got a crisis, weâ€™ve got a crisis and we dance to the sound of sirens

All the wells of oil go dry
And some are set on fire
All Gore fears lack of energy
But we just canâ€™t get tired

Here comes the next pandemia
NATO will send Apaches
A singing bird from Asia
Thatâ€™s sounding very catchy

Weâ€™ve got a crisis, weâ€™ve got a crisis and we dance to the sound of sirens
Weâ€™ve got a crisis, weâ€™ve got a crisis and we dance to the sound of sirens
Weâ€™ve got a crisis, crisis, and we dance to the sound of sirens
Weâ€™ve got a crisis, crisis, and we dance to the sound of sirens

Climate crisis
Energy crisis
Water crisis
Government crisis
Healthcare crisis
Oil crisis
Media crisis
Psycho crisis

Climate crisis
Energy crisis
Water crisis

Government crisis
Healthcare crisis
Oil crisis
Media crisis
Psycho crisis

We've got a crisis, we've got a crisis and we dance to the sound of sirens
We've got a crisis, we've got a crisis and we dance to the sound of sirens

We've got a crisis, crisis, and we dance to the sound of sirens
We've got a crisis, crisis, and we dance to the sound of sirens
