

Year of Living Dangerously

Scissor Sisters

Tell me what does it mean to be faithful
Is a heart only made for beats
Just another word for painful
So I try to slow down, the brakes broken
Theres no way to jump out of here
All these conversations unspoken
So I keep searching
For everything Ill ever be
Never seem to learn
What I can hardly ever see
This is my life, this is my dream
This is my belief, its my fantasy
I still havent found whats gonna set me free
This is my year of living dangerously
Now I cant turn around
Whats done is done
There are words that you cant take back
When you say them to someone
(Whats done is done, whats done is done)
Now you sound like a Redwood falling
With nobody around to hear,
Im out of here youre stalling
When Im standing on the freeway
With my hair blowing in the wind
Maybe one day soon Ill make it
Where Ive never been
This is my life, this is my dream
This is my belief, its my fantasy
I still havent found whats gonna set me free
This is my year of living dangerously
This is my time, just let me be
This is my design, it comes naturally
I still gotta find whats gonna set me free
This is my year of living dangerously
Aint gonna stop for nobody, no one
Aint slowing down and its not my problem now
Aint nothing left you can sell me, tell me
Ive done my best, aw feet dont fail me now
This is my life, this is my dream

This is my belief, its my fantasy
I still havent found whats gonna set me free
This is my year of living dangerously
This is my time, just let me be
This is my design, it comes naturally
I still gotta find whats gonna set me free
This is my year of living dangerously
