

Dreamdemons

Lake of Tears

The hour late, outside it's dark
You better stay inside now
Or you may get caught in my wrath And I will send the demons
You'll run but you cannot hide
And I will send all my minions
To haunt you... Only evil dreams you'll find
Evil demons by their side Howling winds, outside it's cold
You better lock you doors now
Or you may be held by the foul You took my heart
So I'll take yours
Only evil dreams you'll find
Evil demons by their side The hour late, outside it's evil
You better stay inside now
Or you may get caught in my wrath
