

All That's Left

Wade Bowen

Heading out, another night is falling
These empty hands have got something to prove
Cause theyre all thats left of loving you.
I washed this jacket I have a hundred times,
But your smell dont fade away like the blue
Its all thats left from of you.I turn sidewalks all the memories,
Walk these crowded streets till theyre empty.
I talk to strangers, lean on old friends,
Cause they have the silence that comes creeping in the room
Cause thats all thats left of loving you.This pair of boots you bought me for no reason
Theyre looking ragged and the soles are all cleaned through Theyre all thats left of loving you.
A man plays guitar on the corner
He must feel like me, cause all he plays is living tunes
And thats all thats left of loving you.I turn sidewalks all the memories,
Walk these crowded streets till theyre empty.
I talk to strangers, lean on old friends,
Cause they have the silence that comes creeping in the room
Cause thats all thats left of loving you.(x2)Thats all thats left of loving you.Closing time, I stumble to the taxis
Tell the driver end this lane, 12 o2
Cause thats all thats left of loving you.
