

My Mammy

Liza Minnelli

Everything seems lovely
When you start to roam
But here's what you'll be sayin'
When you are far from homeMammy, mammy
The sun shines east, the sun shines west
I know where the sun shines best
Oh, my mammy, my mammyMy heart strings a tangle around, Alabama-ammyI'm comin', sorry that I made you wait
I'm ma ma comin', I hope and pray I'm not too lateOh my, mammy, my little mammy
I'd walk a million miles, for one of those smiles from mammyMammy, yeah, mammy
Woah, woah, the sun shines east, the sun shines west
But I know where the sun shines best
Oh mammy, my little mammyI'd walk a million miles for one of those smiles
From my mammy
