

Face

Dizzee Rascal

Lets talk about over excited boys on the road, said he knows slimzee ,maxwell, gods gift, said he knows plake, said he knows ace. couldnt get a real name for themselves living of reflected glory, living off face, who break all street on every area code, Claims he's tight wiv mega man, cool with romeo cousin of kaish, said he knows neeko breder hype said he had lunch at lethals place, as he looks for the face, i look for a way to move him clearly outa my face, backstage with the N.A.S.T.Y crew where i asked him to get out of my FACE, then i get a live late night phone call and i leave him there, hopes for the face receiving air, pissed 'cause its gone past buisness hours on the clock this, so they could look good and tell tales, its all jiggy and we look like pals, 20 missed calls is total plus 8 voicemails bout 14 messages people cant take hints and messages, and the message is leave me alone. number dont look local this is why i dont answer the phone, u look like a real top boi when the gurls look big bold capitals front pagepeople got a problem, act like i used to make dub-plates for them, and i can be the next big star in your phone book,
